1. Introduction

1.1 Background

Arvesta Financial Services Private Limited and its subsidiaries, if any, ("the Company" or "Arvesta") is committed to conducting business with integrity, transparency and accountability in accordance with all the applicable laws and regulatory requirements.

This Policy is framed in accordance with the provisions of the Reserve Bank of India (Non-Banking Financial Companies – Responsible Business Conduct) Directions, 2025 (as amended from time to time), particularly the chapter relating to Fair Practices Code, and in alignment with the RBI Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, 2021.

Customer service is integral to sustained business growth and regulatory compliance. Customer complaints represent an important "Voice of the Customer" and serve as a feedback mechanism to improve products, processes, and service standards. Accordingly, this Policy establishes a structured and robust framework for receiving, recording, resolving and monitoring customer grievances in a fair, transparent, and time-bound manner.

1.2 Objectives

The Company shall ensure that:

- A structured internal grievance redressal mechanism is established.
- Customer grievances are handled in a courteous, transparent, and time-bound manner.
- Customer dissatisfaction is minimized by identifying service gaps and implementing corrective actions.
- Customers are informed about the grievance escalation framework available to them.
- Complaints are handled fairly, consistently, and without bias.
- The Company complies with the provisions of the RBI Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, 2021.
- Appropriate coordination is maintained with Credit Information Companies (CICs) for credit reporting related complaints.
- Decisions issued by the RBI Ombudsman are duly honoured and implemented.
- Outsourced service providers adhere to defined grievance redressal timelines and standards.
- Customers are aware of alternative remedies available to them if dissatisfied with the Company's resolution.

1.3 Governance

The Board of Directors shall have overall oversight of the grievance redressal framework of the Company. The Board shall ensure that adequate policies, systems and internal controls are established to effectively address customer grievances in accordance with regulatory expectations.

The Company shall establish a Consumer Protection Committee comprising representatives from operations, compliance, risk management and customer service functions. The Committee shall periodically review the nature and volume of customer complaints, identify systemic issues, and recommend appropriate corrective and preventive actions.

The Grievance Redressal Officer (GRO) shall be responsible for overseeing the operational functioning of the grievance redressal process and ensuring that customer complaints are resolved within the prescribed timelines.

The Principal Nodal Officer (PNO) shall supervise the overall grievance redressal framework, ensure compliance with the RBI Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, coordinate regulatory reporting and ensure that unresolved complaints are appropriately escalated.

For the purpose of this Policy, “Senior Management” responsible for grievance monitoring shall include the Grievance Redressal Officer and the Principal Nodal Officer.

This Policy shall apply to all grievances raised by or on behalf of:

- Borrowers and co-borrowers
- Prospective customers
- Vendors, service providers and agents
- Any individual or entity interacting with the Company
- Complaints relating to outsourced activities
- Credit reporting related grievances

For the purpose of this Policy, the term “Customer” shall include any individual or entity raising a grievance in relation to the Company’s products, services, staff conduct, credit reporting practices, outsourcing arrangements or operational matters.

Grievance Redressal Mechanism

Customers may register grievances through the following escalation framework.

3.1 Level 1: Customer Service desk

Customers may initially lodge complaints with the Customer Service Desk through the following channel:

Email:

customerservice@arvesta.in

Contact Number: —

Operational Hours:

9:30 AM to 5:30 PM, Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays.

Process:

- Complaints shall be acknowledged within 24 hours of receipt.
- Each complaint shall be recorded in the Complaint Register maintained by the Company.
- A unique Complaint Reference Number shall be generated and communicated to the customer.
- The customer shall receive confirmation of complaint registration through email or SMS.
- Resolution timeline shall ordinarily be 1–7 business days, depending on the nature and complexity of the complaint.
- Resolution shall be communicated through email, telephone or any other appropriate communication channel.

Note: Where complaints are received from unregistered email IDs, appropriate customer verification procedures shall be undertaken before processing the complaint.

3.2 level 2: Grievance Redressal Officer (GRO)

If the customer is not satisfied with the response provided by the Customer Service Desk, or if the complaint is not resolved within 7 days, the complaint may be escalated to:

Grievance Redressal Officer

Email: grievanceredressalofficer@arvesta.in

Contact Number: —

Office Address: —

The GRO shall:

- Acknowledge complaints within 24 hours of escalation.
- Ensure resolution of the complaint within 7 business days, wherever feasible.

- Ensure that the overall complaint resolution timeline does not exceed 15 days from the date of the original complaint submission.

3.3 Level 3: Principal Nodal Officer (PNO)

If the grievance remains unresolved within 15 days from the initial submission, the customer may escalate the complaint to:

Principal Nodal Officer

Email: principalnodalofficer@arvesta.in

Contact Number: —

Office Address: —

The Principal Nodal Officer shall:

- Oversee the functioning of the grievance redressal framework.
- Ensure adherence to regulatory timelines and internal procedures.
- Coordinate with regulatory authorities, including RBI.
- Ensure appropriate review and closure of escalated complaints.
- Ensure that the maximum resolution timeline does not exceed 30 days from the date of the original complaint submission.

3.4 Level 4: RBI Ombudsman

In accordance with the RBI Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, 2021, customers may approach the RBI Ombudsman if:

- The complaint is not resolved within 30 days, or
- The complainant is not satisfied with the resolution provided by the Company.

Complaints may be lodged through the following channels:

Online:

<https://cms.rbi.org.in>

Email:

crpc@rbi.org.in

Physical submission:

Centralised Receipt and Processing Centre
Reserve Bank of India

4th Floor, Sector 17
Chandigarh – 160017

The Ombudsman mechanism provides an independent forum for resolution of grievances relating to deficiency in service by regulated entities. The procedure, grounds of complaint, exclusions, and powers of the Ombudsman shall be governed strictly by the provisions of the RBI Integrated Ombudsman Scheme, 2021.

The Company shall fully cooperate with the Office of the Ombudsman and shall comply with any award, direction or order issued under the Scheme in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements.

Information regarding the RBI Integrated Ombudsman Scheme shall be made available on the Company's website.

Timeframe for Redressal

Type of Complaint	Turnaround Time
